Thank you for downloading the Summer Journal. I hope you and your family have a lot of fun using it and enjoy it as much I do.

The Summer Journal and all its pages are FREE to you and your family. You may print and use it in your own home, with a co-op, or classroom. However, you may NOT sell the Summer Journal or claim it as your own.

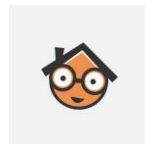

I want to thank Daily Art Hub for the wonderful graphics you find in this journal. You can see all their other great clip art at <https://www.dailyarthub.com/>

You can find more on my website The Secret Life of Homeschoolers.

I'm also on social media. Click and follow me on Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, and Pinterest.

Thanks again.

Happy Homeschooling!
